The College of Creative Arts (<http://ccarts.wvu.edu/>): The College of Creative Arts is one of 15 schools and colleges within the University and includes the School of Theatre & Dance, the School of Music, and the School of Art & Design and offers the state's premiere training in the visual and performing arts. Each of these Schools has a national profile of excellence and all programs are nationally accredited (NAST, NASM, and NASAD). The College is housed in WVU's recently renovated Creative Arts Center. There are approximately 750 majors in the college, 71 full-time faculty and 21 professional staff.

The College of Creative Arts educates succeeding generations of artists, teachers, and scholars through an experiential student-centered approach to learning. The College advocates the arts as a medium through which the diversity of human experience is understood and valued. Exemplifying excellence and innovation in performance, exhibition, scholarship, and creative research, the College offers artistic and cultural opportunities for the citizens of West Virginia and the global community.

The School of Theatre and Dance (<http://theatre.wvu.edu/>): The School of Theatre & Dance has a current enrollment of approximately 130 undergraduates and 14 graduates. The School offers MFA degrees in acting and design, BFA degrees in acting, design & technology, and creative dramatics & puppetry, a BA degree in theatre studies, and minors in theatre and dance.

As part of its mission, the School educates students in the traditions and practices of the arts of theatre and dance by challenging them to engage in the many processes used and valued by collaborative artists. To do so, the School employs 18 full-time and 2 part-time faculty and 3 professional staff, and annually produces 5-7 mainstage and 2-4 lab theatre productions in three theatres supported by well equipped production facilities. The School is dedicated to providing an exceptional classroom education supported by live production experiences.

West Virginia University (<http://www.wvu.edu>): The University is classified as a Doctoral/Research University-Extensive and the state's only comprehensive doctoral-granting, land grant institution. WVU has a current enrollment of approximately 29,000 students on the Morgantown campus and 32,000 statewide. WVU is located 75 miles south of Pittsburgh, 200 miles west of the Baltimore/Washington DC metropolitan area, and within easy driving distance from New York. The university community is committed to student-centered priorities, academic excellence, research, creative activity, and service to the State.

West Virginia University is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Women, minorities, and protected-class individuals are encouraged to apply.
